EVENT INFORMATION:

Block out your schedule and hold your calls for the 2008 Duluth Business-to-Business Expo! Join other local and regional business professionals for the business event of the year!

The Duluth B2B Expo was created to give area business owners and business professionals a new way to promote their business, stay connected to the business community and learn how to improve their companies through seminars, workshops, networking and seeing the newest products and services local vendors have to offer.

The B2B Expo features exhibitors, seminars, workshops and unlimited networking opportunities, as well as some well deserved fun! You'll also be able to register to win thousands of dollars worth of prizes. Work has never been this fun or productive.

EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

The Duluth Business-to-Business Expo is the perfect place to showcase your products and services. Any business providing products or services to other business in the region (from Ely to Hinckley, Grand Rapids to Hayward, WI and of course the Twin Ports Area) will benefit from exhibiting at this show.

The B2B Expo allows you to come face-to-face with potential customers, network with other business owners and generate solid leads for your sales force. March 26th will be your most productive day of work in 2008.

Whether you're a small, medium or large company, exhibiting at this show is sure to bring more customers and more sales, as well as generate awareness for your business in the area.
